Much criticism is being heard of Judge Lewis L. Walker for ordering State troops here to protect the negro Shay Pelham from danger of mob violence, after the unusual manifestation of respect for the law and willingness that it take its course upon the part of the Messrs. Rankin at the time of the commission of the negro's crime. No one questions but that Judge Walker acted in the best of faith, and his own statement before the grand jury accepting full responsibility for the calling of the soldiers here proves his conscientiousness in the matter, but nothing he may say or do will remove the stigma that has been placed upon the county officers and the other parties most affected by having armed soldiers here to protect the prisoner. The general opinion seems to be that in view of the fact that the Messrs. Rankin themselves arrested the culprit, and peacefully brought him to town to turn over to the officers of the law, and at time when their feelings were undoubtedly at the fever pitch, some better mark of confidence in their most commendable law-abiding spirit then shown should have found expression at this time, rather than that open suspicion be cast upon them and their friends by the summoning of soldiers here to guard the negro.

Dr. Carpenter

NEW PRESIDENT OF STATE MEDICAL SOCIETY

Dr. J.G. Carpenter, of this city, was signally honored at the annual convention of the Kentucky State Medical Society, which was in session at Lexington this week. He was elected president of the Society for the ensuing year after one of the closest races in the history of the Society for many years. He beat Dr. Pryor, of Lexington by a majority of seven votes.

Dr. Carpenter's active work in the fight on tuberculosis, has attracted attention all over the state and the delegates were enthusiastic over his election to head the State society.

John Wesley Gaines

TENNESSEE EX-CONGRESSMAN HERE ON SHORT VISIT

John Wesley Gaines, who represented the Nashville Tennessee district in Congress for 12 years, was here on legal business Wednesday. He spent much time with Congressman Harvey Helm, who introduced him around town. Mr. Gaines is well known here by reputation for he has frequently appeared in the public eye more than one occasion. At present he has bolted the regular democratic ticket in Tennessee and is out-spoken for the success of the fusion ticket.

Mr. Gaines and Mr. Helm drove out to the cemetery in Mr. Bailey Hill's automobile, as Mr. Gaines desired to look at some old gravesites, bearing the name of Gaines. He spent some time in the county clerk's office looking up land titles.

A valuable collie dog was stolen from Attorney W. H. Roberts, of Danville this week and he offers a reward of $25 for his return.

GO RIGHT AT IT.

Friends and Neighbors in Stanford Will Show You How.

Get at the root of the trouble. Rubbing an aching back may relieve it.

But it won't cure. You must reach the root of it—the kidneys.

Doan's kidney pills go right at it; Reach the cause relieve the pain. They cure too so Stanford people say.

Capt Thomas Richards, W. Main St. Stanford, Ky., says: "Many years ago my kidneys began to trouble. Back grew so lame that I could not stoop and I slept poorly at night. Sometimes an almost complete retention of the kidney secretions existed, then again I had a frequent desire to pass them. When the secretions were voided, a burning pain was in evidence. I finally had the good fortune to learn of Doan's Kidney Pills and commenced their use. This remedy gave me great relief and in view of experience, I consider it the best preparation of its kind I have ever taken. I have commended Doan's Kidney Pills to scores of people and everyone has reported that good results have followed their use."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-Milburn, Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

David Colson

JOINS BOYS IN GRAY IN OTHER SHORE—PREACHERSVILLE LETTER

Preachersville, Sept. 29

David Colson died last Sunday night at the home of his son, John Colson, near Crab Orchard, of a complication of troubles incident to old age. After services at the grave by Messrs. J. C. McWhorter and G. W. Spangler, his remains were laid to rest in the Preachersville cemetery. Monday afternoon at three o'clock to await the resurrection morning. Mr. Colson is survived by his wife and three sons and one daughter, all of who are grown.

Deceased was a Confederate veteran and Mr. Spangler, who served with him, spoke very freely of his strict devotion to duty. He was a member of the Methodist church, a good neighbor and was liked by all who knew him. May the bereaved ones prepare to meet the departed ones on high.

It was our good fortune which offered us much pleasure to meet the venerable Mr. Reuben Williams of McKinney a few days since. He served through the Mexican War at the age of 20, and now at the age of 85 is as straight as an arrow and is a well preserved man for that age, in fact he does not look over 65. He is said to be the only survivor in Central Kentucky.

Born to the wife of J. M. Cress a nice girl—Annie Dema.

On account of such a steady downpour last Sunday, there were no services at the Baptist church.

Mrs. J. J. Thompson is quite sick. The eldest daughter of David Adams is quite ill of typhoid fever and hemorrhages.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lunsford were visiting the families of John Bell and B. T. Lunsford. Misses Ida and Willie Belle Holtzclaw, Mary Anderson and Lena Traylor, of Stanford, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Thompson Sunday.

Our Hustonville correspondent's suggestion to put our roads and pikes in charge of the magistrate, constable or level-headed farmers is heartily endorsed by our entire community.
